LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

Around Home News.

Mrs. H. C. Hefner, of Paxton, received a bedspread bought in Paris at a cost of $100. It was a gift from her son.

W. A. Wilson, of Cerro Gordo, has sold his farm of $100 acres, two miles north of La Place, to John Wayne, for $81 per acre.

Among the variations of Cerro Gordo noted in addresses of letters by the poet-master there are "Cera Gordo," "Sara Gordo," "Cary Gordo," "Cari Gordo," "Sara Gordia," "Sary Gordy," "Cary Gordy," and "Sarah Gordah."

Will Sell Out.

James Fitzpatrick, of Alwood, who shot and killed Everett Thresher about a month ago, has advertised his farm property and effects for sale, and it is evident that he does not feel that his present location is a safe one for himself. His trial will occur at the coming term of the First county circuit court. Tuscola Review.

Electric Bitters.

This remedy is becoming so well known and so popular as to need no special mention. All who have used Electric Bitters sing the same song of praise. A purer medicine does not exist. It is guaranteed to do all that is claimed. Electric Bitters will cure all diseases of the Liver and Kidneys, will remove impure blood. Will drive Malaria from the system and prevent its return. Stoner, Drug Store.

On Open Confession.

Below are the remarks of Elder B. O. Lamplugh, late pastor of the Christian church at Sullivan, as made to his congregation Wednesday night:

"What I shall now say may be a surprise to most of you and yet not to all of you, but it is my candid decision after not a little earnest and honest consideration to change my ecclesiastical relations. I have felt for some time that I was not in the fullest accord with this people doctrinally. I feel that I am in more thorough sympathy with the Baptist denomination, with their views and polity. I shall therefore seek affiliation with that body of Christians where I may find more peace and golden sheaves in the fields so white for the harvest."

Rev. Lamplugh occupied the pulpit at the Baptist church, this city, last night.

"The Boy Tramp" Monday Night.

Monday night we are to have the celebrated Newville in the "Boy Tramp" comedy drama, a play that has been seen and applauded in Decatur. Said the New Haven Morning News:

Standing room only was to be had last night when the curtain rose on "The Boy Tramp." Mulan played with force and power, and her artistic conception of Milder Earleton won her generous applause. August Newville as Jack Shrimp, displayed a versatility of wide range and strength, and his rendition of the part is worthy of high commendation. The entire company is very strong. The medicinal effects produced and the special scenery used materially added to the production; the East river scene in the fourth act is particularly realistic and striking.

Consumption.

Ballard's Horehound Syrup. No single disease has played such sad havoc with the human race as Consumption. Its other disease approaches to stealthily. Its early symptoms are ignored because it is thought only a Cold or hacking cough, which is neglected until the grim monster has such a hold that nothing but death can relieve it. Ballard's Horehound Syrup has removed the grip of this grim monster from many a throat. It is in time it will effect a permanent cure, and in the worst cases it will give temporary relief. Try it, soothing and healing virtues. Do not put it off until too late. Sold by John A. Swearingen, Druggist.

HOW IS THIS?

Why Not Save Money When You Can?

* A Penny Saved Is a Penny Earned.

What we eat costs us more money than any other of our wants, and especially is this true if we do not seize every opportunity to buy where we can do so to the best advantage. Logan & Beik are the pioneers of Low Prices in groceries, and those who have patronized them know how well the claim is based. What is the sense in paying high prices when you can buy the same goods for less money? They refer to the following price list to show that they are not indulging in windy bragging when they claim to sell goods at lower prices than their competitors, and a simple trial will convince the most skeptical that their goods are all that can be desired:

PUBLIC INSTALLA.
Officers of Three Societies in Place at Post Hall.
Over 300 People Witness the Ceremonies—Gifts, Music and Speeches.
The commodious Grand Army Post hall was crowded last evening, despite the bad weather, to witness the public installation of the newly-elected officers of Durham Post 141, G. A. R., the Woman's Relief Corps, and Col. I. C. Pugh Camp No. 14, Sons of Veterans. It was the first public ceremony of the kind held in the new hall, and it was most artistically decorated and trimmed with flags and bunting, and made fragrant with flowers, in honor of the historical event.
The beautiful effects were due to the good taste of the ladies, who were busy yesterday in making the decorations, as they were in time of the war sending clothing and food to the front, while they also looked after their homes and other duties. Many were the compliments bestowed upon the ladies, and they felt that their reward had been ample as the "lords of creation" were pleased.

THE INSTALLATION.
The different stations were occupied by the elected officers of the three organizations and in turn the officers were duly obligated, after the assembly had been called to order.

COL. I. C. PUGH CAMP, NO. 14.
The place of honor was yielded to the youngest organization, Col. I. C. Pugh Camp No. 14, Sons of Veterans, reorganized in May with 31 charter members, now having a membership of nearly 50.
The installing officer was Col. George B.
Stadden, of Springfield, Colonel of the Illinois Division, who was attired in full uniform, and performed the ceremony without a break and with commendable dignity. The officers of the Camp installed were:

Frank Cassell, captain.
Willis Martin, first lieutenant.
Willis Martin, second lieutenant.
Landy H. Martin, J. W. Smith and James Lindsey, camp council.

The staff officers will be obligated at the next meeting.

THE RELIEF CORPS.
Next came the Woman's Relief Corps, Mrs. Sallie J. Steele taking charge of and conducting the interesting ceremony in a way that demonstrated that the lady, who is one of the Department Inspectors, is familiar with the written and unwritten work of the order. Officers installed:

Mrs. M. A. Bradley, president.
Mrs. M. Brown, senior vice-president.
Mrs. Ward, junior vice-president.
Mrs. Hopping, chaplain.
Mrs. Myra Mark, secretary.
Mrs. Louise Barnes, treasurer.
Mrs. Wingardner, conductor.
Mrs. Nichols, assistant conductor.
Mrs. Brinkman, grand.

Mrs. Freeman, assistant grand.
There was a surprise in store for Mrs.
E. T. Seger, the retiring president, who through Mrs. Bradley was presented with a handsome emblematic bronze badge, as a testimonial from the corps for her services the past year. The remarks by both ladies were cordial and appropriate.

DURHAM POST 141.
The officers of Durham Post 141, Grand Army of the Republic, were duly installed by Captain M. F. Kanan, the senior past post commander of the United States, he having been elected commander of Post 1 at the birth of the grand order in Decatur April 6, 1886.

The officers installed were:
R. J. Roberts, commander.
I. N. Martin, senior vice commander.
P. Williams, junior vice commander.
E. J. Blaine, quartermaster.
James P. Stadden, officer of the day.
George Nichols, officer of the grand.
R. P. Lytle, chaplain.
James Carter, quartermaster sergeant.
Savanna Pringle, adjutant.
J. B. Spaulding, sergeant elect, was absent.

PUBLIC PRESENTATION.
The installation ceremonies having been concluded, Commander Roberts arose and called up the members of the Sons of Veterans Camp. He said: "Comrades and friends, I will ask as a question of privilege that, inasmuch as Captain M.
F. Kanan is senior past post commander of the United States, that he be allowed to say a few words." Captain Kanan then came forward bearing a handsome framed portrait of Col. I. C. Pugh, in whose honor Camp 14 had been named.
Addressing himself to the officers and members of the Camp, the Captain said:

"I am requested by the widow and daughter of Col. Pugh to present to you his picture. It is to remain in your care and keeping so long as you shall retain your organization as a camp of Sons of Veterans. Your selection of a name is most fitting as Col. Pugh was indeed a veteran, having seen service in two wars preceding the one that brought your organization into existence, and in honoring his memory you honor yourselves."

was my fortune, as one of his commands, to see much of him in camp life, and often on the field of battle where his splendid courage challenged the respect of all. In accepting his name for your camp, you have built a monument to his memory, here at his home, where he was respected by all who knew him, and where he fought his last battle and succeeded in saving his life as he has lived, a brave soldier, a good citizen and a Christian gentleman."

On receiving the valued gift Captain Cassell said:

"In behalf of Col. Isaac C. Pugh Camp, Sons of Veterans, allow me to express thanks and assure you that the portrait which you present to us is to be highly appreciated by the camp."

Mrs. Myra H. Mark, daughter of Col.
Pugh, was formally introduced to the Camp and audience by President Bradley, and the Sons gave her the regulation salute of respect.

During the evening patriotic addresses were given by Col. Stadden and Comrade J. A. F. King, and there was appropriate music for which Mrs. C. L. Hovey furnished the organ accompaniment and Comrade King pronounced the benediction.

It was a red letter evening in the history of each organization, and the incidents and impressions of the occasion will long be cherished.

Called Away.
The death of James M. Webb, aged 96 years, son of Mrs. Harriet Webb, took place this morning at 12:50 o'clock, at the family residence, No. 229 South Main street, where he has been failing steadily with lung trouble since he returned from Colorado Springs, Colo., six weeks ago.
He was formerly engaged in business at Taylorville. His brothers are Creighton, Clinton, Frank, Robert, Charles and Bert Webb, and his sisters Clara and Mamie Webb. Deceased was an industrious and proud young man and his Decatur, Macon and Taylorville friends will regret to hear of his premature death, and will extend their sympathy to the stricken family.

The body will be taken this evening to Macon where the funeral will take place at 10:30 a. m. on Sunday.

It is figured out on the books as a result of the election contest case in the courts from Blue Mound township, in which E. R. Moffett, Republican, defeated R. H. Hill, Democrat, in the supreme court, that the total costs are $183.62.
Of this sum Mr. Moffett was adjudged to pay $30.80, and Hill $152.82.

The Decatur Branch of the Merchants' Retail Commission will meet on Monday evening next at 7 o'clock, at the room over Millikin's Bank. By order of the Executive Committee.

Before Supreme Judges.
The attorneys in the William Hamsher appeal case were at Springfield yesterday and appeared before the full bench of the Supreme Court, seven dignified judges, who calmly listened to the arguments presented by Bunn & Park, counsel for the plaintiff and I. R. Mills, counsel for the defense. The honorable court answered not a word and will have nothing to say in reference to the matter until April, when they will hand in their decision. The plaintiff contends that he has a legal right to a large amount of realty, which D. F. Hamsher, his son, bequeathed to the Y. M. C. A.

THE MUSICAL WONDER.
Sketch of Blind Tom—His Age and Talent.

Blind Tom, who is at the Grand this afternoon and will appear again to-night, is the wonder of the age. As everybody knows, he is a negro and is an idiot. He was born within a few miles of the city of Columbus, Ga. on May 25, 1849.
His parents were slaves, common field hands of pure negro blood. His mother was a small woman of fine form, with remarkably small feet and hands, and very quick in her movements. Tom's fame as a pianist has gone all over the world. He has performed in every city of this country and in Canada and Mexico. He crossed the Atlantic and caused a sensation in all the big cities of Europe, where he played before the royal families. He showed his musical ability at the age of two years, when he used to sing songs well and would often join with others and sing in very pretty solos. When he was three years old he heard the first piano and always stood outside his master's house listening to it when it was being played. One day he managed to get into the house, and sitting himself at the piano ran his fingers over the keys and very soon played the tunes that he had heard others play. He would then often get to the piano and would sit for hours playing pieces of his own. When asked what they were he would say, "It is what the winds said to me," or "what the birds said to me," or "what the trees said to me."

Future of the Short Line.
E. J. Martin, vice-president of the Eccentric Electric Street Railway Company, is home from his Chicago and Detroit trip, and as the office of the company has been removed from Chicago to Decatur Mr. Martin will have full charge of the business. He states that the company will spend $30,000 in track extensions in Decatur this year, and that each of the cars will be supplied with new motors of twenty horse power. It is the purpose of the company to put the plant in first-class working order. This is gratifying news. The success of all Decatur enterprises adds fame and prosperity to the city, and everybody has reason to rejoice over the prospects indicated. The bonded indebtedness of the company will be increased to $50,000.

door, No. 114. The two large and beautiful rooms are now the same as ours, being connected at each end by large dorways, which give a complete circuit of both for wheeling. It is a beautiful sight to see the wheelers go skimming around, though nothing on compare with being in the wild yourself. You who do not ride the wheel cannot realize what you are missing. It gives the weak and delicate health. The weary, sick, gladly take man and child, a greatly needed exercise, putting new life into them. Try it, and I know you will say with me that it is the elixir of life you have been looking for. Wheels to riders,

A PARABLE.

The things that just about us Are all that we can make When light is lessening in the day And twilight turns to dark.

But when from night close darkness bars
The face next our own O heaven, with thy million stars Our eyes see thee alone!
—Charlotte Fane Bates in Congressional Record.

A Relic of the War.
Capt. Tip Harrison had an interesting war relic at the capital Friday. It was an old battle flag worn thin and pierced by many holes. The story of the flag was told by Capt. Harrison: "When the war first broke out," he said, "I was a boy of 17 and was living in Bartow county. There were a number of boys of my own age who were anxious to join the army. These boys organized into a company, and we called ourselves the Bartow cadets. When, however, the time came for us to go to the front, many of the boys' parents would not let them go because they were so young. I had thirty-five left, however, and with these I meant to report for duty.

"In Bartow at that time a company of older men had been formed, under the command of Capt. Redding. They were called the Stewart Guards. I consolidated my company with the older one, and we took the name of the Bartow Guards. I was first lieutenant of the joint company. Just before marching away from Florida, Fort who is the Mrs. William A. Rawson, made the flag and presented it to us. Gen. Clement A.
Evans was offered the position of major of the Thirty-first Georgia regiment if he could bring two companies into the service. He took our company for one and raised another, but we were still known as the Bartow guards, and carried this flag, which had been presented to us as our company colors, until the Confederate battle flag was adopted, then sent it home to my mother, and she has kept it as a memento ever since."
